To whom it may concern,

I have known Steve and Carrie Sawyer for over 15 years having been their pastor during that time. They are a family very dedicated to Christian principles. They are honest in their representations before others; they are thorough in their life and business pursuits. They seek to do well and seek to do right. They do not cut corners in life and seek to live what they represent.

I have personally visited their animal kennels. They also reflect their personal care and concern for the well being of the animals they care for. They have thought through space utilization, temperature controls, health care, feeding, and the many facets of caring for their animals very well. They are well informed regarding their animals and give keen attention to every detail as well as caring for and assisting the needs of the clients they serve.

As in every area of life, the best decisions seem to be accompanied by working with reliable people that are guided by good judgment and reliable character. The Sawyers are not people that just present quick rhetoric but have deep lasting character to back up what they say and do.

Without reservation, I can heartily recommend them as reliable people that value a good reputation.

Thanks for your consideration.

Fully trusting in Jesus,

Steve Johnson, Pastor
